Most people describe Dallan as energetic, ambitious, and optimistic. He is a driven entrepreneur, opening his first business repairing small engines while in High School. At 21 years of age he took over his grandfathers successful water distiller business and under his leadership JB Water has become a thriving Plumbing and Water Treatment company with 10x's the gross volume and still growing. He has served in numerous leadership capacities in addition to being the youngest president of the Arizona Water Quality Association.

As a fifth generation Arizonan, Dallan has been instilled with the desire to be a part of making his community better for present and future generations. He serves faithfully in his church, was a Unit Commissioner for the Boy Scouts of America from 2010-2013, and served actively on his HOA for over 11 years, primarily as Board President and Treasurer. He currently serves on the Board of Appeals for the City of Mesa.

Dallan believes in family, and the importance of teaching his children core principles to live by. He loves to take the family on amazing outdoor adventures. One of their favorite places to visit is the back country of Yellowstone National Park. He and his bride of 16 years live in Mesa Arizona with their 2 boys and 5 girls.

Dallan's wide ranging business experience along with wise mentors has primed him to be trusted by the most savvy investors as someone that can be counted on to protect and grow their largest assets. He is the Vice President of the Multi-family division for Commercial Properties Inc and is ready to service your needs.
