Gregg brings over 12 years of financial, technology and Commercial Real Estate experience to CPI's Office Team, providing his clients with outstanding service and industry knowledge. Focusing on Phoenix's South East Valley office sub-market, Mr. Sherman utilizes a successful face to face marketing strategy in order to procure buyers and tenants for his clients.

Previously, Gregg worked in the Wall Street Financial District selling pension funds and payroll products to mid to large market firms. These unique skills have made him a valuable representative to his commercial real estate clients.

Mr. Sherman is a licensed real estate agent and earned a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from Susquehanna University. Outside of these endeavors, Gregg enjoys spending time with his family and friends.
